Re: ILWU (Pacific Maritime Association)
Case 19-CB-169296

Dear Mr. Remar:

This letter acknowledges receipt of Respondent ILWU's Notice Adopting Intervenor PMA's Opposition to Charging Party's Exceptions to ALJ Decision; And ILWU Motion for Leave to File This Notice, filed with the Board on July 25, 2017.

As you are aware, answering briefs in this matter were due on July 24, 2017. Because the Respondent's "answering brief" was filed after the due date, it is untimely and will not be forwarded to the Board for consideration.

Section 102.2(d) of the Board's Rules and Regulations allows for parties to file documents within a reasonable time after the due date only upon good cause shown based on excusable neglect and when no undue prejudice would result. "A party seeking to file such documents beyond the time prescribed by these Rules must file, along with the document, a motion that states the grounds relied on for requesting permission to file untimely. The specific facts relied on to support the motion must be set forth in affidavit form and sworn to by individuals with personal knowledge of the facts." Here, the you state that you mistakenly overlooked the deadline in this matter, and in light of this, you request that the Board accept the untimely brief. In order for the Board to consider your reasons for the late-filing, you must follow the prescribed method outlined in Section 12.2(d), which requires a sworn affidavit by individuals with personal knowledge of the facts.

For any questions related to this letter, please contact me at (202) 273-1949.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Farah Z. Qureshi
